

of Congress and 80% of the staffers had military experience. Now less than 1/3 of Congress and 5% of their staff have had any military experience. And on the civilian side, only 6% today of Americans younger than 65 have ever served in uniform.

Those numbers by themselves are not alarming because it's recognized that we are not at war and we have at present an all-volunteer military. We just need to be sure that we elect public officials who have a greater understanding and a strong commitment to support our national security and defense by deeds, not mere words. We need their solid support, as well as from local school board officials, for military recruiters who were denied access to high school campuses 19,228 times in 1999.

Thank you for inviting me to participate in your Flag Day celebration today. As members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, you have long set an example the rest of us must try to follow if we are going to preserve for our future generations the same priceless treasures of liberty and freedom which our forebears passed on to us.
